American civil rights movement

Autres langues vivantes
FR

American civil rights movement

Martin Luther King
Rev. Martin Luther King addresses his supporters after their return to Brown’s Chapel AME, following their abortive march on Montgomery, on March 9, 1965 in Selma. - AFP

This Agence France-Presse (AFP) package on the civil rights movement in the United States has been compiled using the agency's text, photo, graphics and video archives.

The dossier was compiled by Raphaelle Picard.

Niveau

- Lycée

Thématique
Histoire-Géographie
HGGSP
Langues vivantes
SES

- From slavery to the White House
- Racism a part of daily life
- A tactic of peaceful resistance
- Key figures in the black rights movement
- 'I have a dream': a speech that still echoes
- Martin Luther King assassinated
- The ugly face of white racism
- A struggle marked by deadly violence
- Desegregation step by step
- A fight to go to school
- Mixed marriages, a taboo broken
- AFP journalist murdered covering the clashes

Book traversal links for American civil rights movement

- From slavery to the White House ›